BedTime Stories From God's Heart

Book Seven of Twelve c. 2025

By Ma Tian En

365 Stories of Courage, Love, Heroes, and God-Incidences!

Special Thanks to God in 2025 & 5785!
I wish to give God All the Glory for this Booklet of Short BedTime Stories!
Memorize James 1:5,6.

I began writing this after my dear friend and sister Jip passed away from cancer, yet the Lord knew it was a big job, so the Holy Spirit began to send help in many ways. One is brother James Meletiou, a 80 plus year old Greek brother in Knoxville, Tennessee, www.godainicafe.com (is Chinglish for God-loves-you-cafe)

James already had many short stories and testimonies already done to share and encourage others! Some of his stories are used in this booklet. The Public Library, Ibiblios.org and the Guttenburg Project are other sources of free, difficult to find Christian testimonies. We wish to share and preserve for future generations rare Christian stories to be an encouragement and strengthening to faith in God the Father, Jesus Christ and the precious Holy Spirit!. I give special THANKS to all my family and friends who helped me, prayed for me and love me during this season.

Christian Islamic Dialogue (www.welovemuslims.org), has helped hundreds of Muslims to find Jesus as their Lord and Savior. In this Book Seven, we wish to highlight some of the pioneers who have recently passed away like Rudolf Mak, of Hong Kong, and others. We honor them in their dedication and love as men who desired "all to be saved" and labored to help as many of the one billion Muslims finds Jesus in the truths of the Bible which is the only inspired God breathed document in all history.

God has indeed placed "eternity in our heart's" and has instilled abundantly creative Bridges of Revelation in all cultures to illuminate the truths of Jesus to those who seek Him. God is a loving, very personal God, seeking all and hoping to be found by us if we can but just open our spiritual eyes long enough to behold Him.

Note To Friends, Parents, and Grandparents:

This is not your “Typical” Bedtime Story Book! It is meant to make you laugh together, also cry together, to create a few memories and projects together you might not make time to do otherwise. Its meant to take about 15 minutes per night, but then once a week, on Friday, expect a “project” you will both enjoy and plan 30 minutes....or so.

I intend to fulfill many purposes writing this, to help you create a legacy for your family, a keepsake of heritage, a place to record life changes, prayers and answers to prayers! After living in China many years, I returned to a country that had forgotten to put a missions section in their bookstores! So I am attempting to fix it.... my way.

Life is too short to see it wasted, so let us make the most of every opportunity to spread the love of God, even in the face of hatred, to uphold clear moral boundaries because hell is a real place and (thankfully heaven too), to promote God’s desire that no one should be lost, but rather all possible be saved!

Grant Father God that we might be godly, grateful, gracious and guided by Your loving Heart.

In Jesus’ Name. Amen

God's Equidistance:

God has a Geopolitical "Chess Board" and while there are many World Leaders playing the Great Game, God remains the Grand Master of All! In 2025, Trump is back in the Great Game, since God spared his life from an assassin bullet, also AI Rapid Tech DeepSeek, and many other changes have entered the Game.

Edward O Wilson said, " We seem to have stumbled into this 21st Century, with Stone Age emotions, medieval institutions, and near god-like Technologies" therefore Ma Tian En adds, " we much more now than ever, we need God to lead this 21st Century, to follow His emotions of Reason, True Morals and Love, organic growth system institutions, and God honoring technologies that Care for our World and its People." Therefore Leaders need to read a Bible, many for the very first time..

Its important to first open your Bible and to ask God to give you a verse to help guide your day, EVERYDAY, and to thank God before reading this and to ask God you show you how to be a better blessing others everyday. This is a very good lifetime habit. See Titus 3:8.

#1 St. Francis Of Assisi &
The Sultan
Of Egypt:
Read Matthew 5: Beatitudes

In 1219, the Fifth Crusade was raging to regain back all Christian land which had be conquered by the Islamic sword armies since 650AD. The problem with such wars are that they deal with the secondary problems and not the ROOT of the problems, Ideology. What is an Ideology? It is the very thing which you believe is "Truth" as opposed to a "Lie". Its the Study of the Idea of Truth. Therefore, in 1219, in Damietta, Egypt, St. Francis decided to risk his and his friend, Illuminatus' life. He knew some Arabic, and they crossed over the blood covered battle line to visit the Sultan of Egypt, Malik al-Kamil, to try and have a holy dialogue about Truth. Imagine if someone today went to the leaders of the Taliban to discuss Truth, or the leaders Hamas. Would they kidnap you to get prisoners released? Try to convert you? Kill you? So you see, St. Francis and his friend were very brave, they prayed, they put their lives in God's hand, and instead of going to fight and kill an enemy, they went to try and talk and make friends. Some Christians are martyred trying to do such things. If God asked you to take a risk, would you?

God delights in good men who trust Him, and Malek was encouraged to kill St. Francis and Illuminatus by his advisors as "infidels" yet Malek honored their courage, and was willing to spare their lives and spend a week discussing Truth with them. They talked about the Bible and the Quran together to try and understand each other and find Peace in Truth. What things did they speak of? Malek believed in One God, and thought St. Francis believed in Three gods! St. Francis said "Who told you that Lie! I believe in One God!" (see I Timothy 2:5,6) What about Jesus (peace be unto Him)? Jesus is the Kalimatu'allah, the Eternal Word of God according to the Bible and the Quran! (See John 1:1 & Q.4:171) Is God's Word Eternal? His Spirit, Eternal? Yet One!

#2. Read Esther

The Chinese Christian
"Esther" of China & Politics
Seeking to Serve God &
Nations in the Love of Jesus Christ her Lord.

Soong Mei-ling initially avoided the public eye after marrying Chiang, she soon began an ambitious social welfare project to establish schools for the orphans of Chinese soldiers. The orphanages were well-appointed: with playgrounds, hotels, swimming pools, a gymnasium, model classrooms, and dormitories. Soong Mei-ling was deeply involved in the project and even picked all of the teachers herself. There were two schools – one for boys and one for girls—built on a 405-hectare (1,000-acre) site at the foot of Purple Mountain, in Nanjing. She referred to these children as her "warphans" and made them a personal cause. The fate of the children of fallen soldiers became a much more important issue in China after the beginning of the war with Japan in 1937. In order to better provide for these children she established the Chinese Women's National War Relief Society. She was very brave, and risked her life to save many. In the USA, over 100 years old, she was very sad President Carter was tricked to allow China to enter the WTO, rejecting Taiwan. Later, she desired all her family to be saved in Jesus, are you? If not, why not?

Perpetua & Felicity
Roman Lady Martyrs
Sharing Jesus in the Gladiator "Games".

On their way to the arena, Perpetua and the other Christians sang hymns and called out to the people they met along the way to repent of their sins. The Romans chose an especially vicious punishment for Perpetua and her friend, Felicity. They would be subjected to a mad heifer, a symbol for the Romans of fertility and motherhood as both women were young mothers. Yet as Perpetua and Felicity stepped into the arena and the gate closed behind them, their faces were serene. Like abortion today, the Romans sacrificed children to appease the gods, so the Roman crowd knew killing children was evil, yet didn't wish to face the "social pressure" of friends and family, yet these ladies stood firm.

Trampled and beaten by the mad cow, the women remained upright. As she was tossed about, Perpetua even pulled her torn garment to cover herself and preserve her modesty. Eventually Felicity succumbed to her wounds but Perpetua survived. A young gladiator was sent to kill her, and when Perpetua saw that the young man hesitated with a trembling sword in hand, she took his wrist and guided the sword to her own throat.

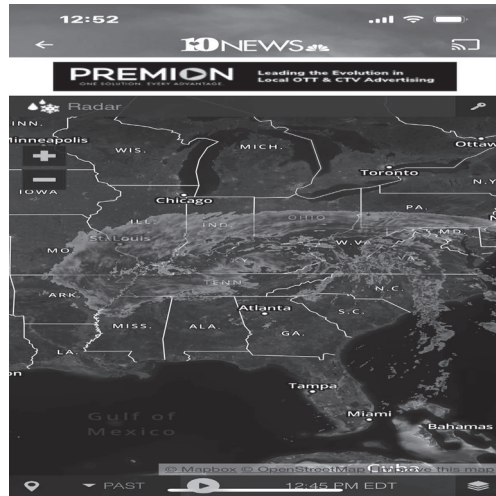

All who witnessed these events and many who have heard them have been amazed by Perpetua's courage. While we may be horrified by such tales, they have the power to convict us. Many pagan Romans marveled at the bravery of these martyrs. For instance, Justin of Neapolis witnessed similar displays of courage and thought, "why would they die for anything but the truth?" Justin converted to Christianity and even faced martyrdom himself. Is this uncommon today?

Global Christian Martyrs in 2000- 2024:

YEMAN: Martha Myers served Jesus 25 years as a Doctor delivering hundreds of babies Al Qaeda Islamists murdered her in 2002. Then, 40,000 Yemeni filed by her Coffin to mourn and honor her Christian love and sacrifice to help them.

MYANMAR (BURMA): Pastor Nammye Hkun, age 47, was shot in a "targeted assassination" In Kachin, Mogaung township. Burma has been killing Christians and bombing Churches for over 50 years. The Free Burma Rangers are a Christian group led to help rescue the villagers from the killing, pray or go help them in Thailand.

LAOS: Pastor Thongkham Philavanh, age 40, Khmu Christian Pastor was assassinated By two men on motorbikes. ZAMBIA, AFRICA: William Bonda, was shot dead in Tzaneen, South Africa while preparing communion. Later, three COPTIC Egypt MONKS were shot and killed. NORTH KOREA: Several dozen Christians were Executed and 100's of thousands have died so far in this Communist place. These are but a few of the many all over the world in 2024 who died for Jesus.

#4.A God & Climate Change:

Who Controls
The Global Weather
In 2025/5785?
Man or God?

Read Gen.6:17

Catherine of Siena (1347-1380) and the Calamitous “Little Ice Age” of the 14th Century

The High Middle Ages (11th-13th centuries) was a time of great prosperity and population growth. It was a Medieval Warm Period, yet people seemed to ignore God and sin more, then it seems a Climate Judgement from God fell on these people lasting 400 years! It seems it would have been much better if they just repented and had a 400 year REVIVAL instead!

In 2025, the number of people facing catastrophic hunger, specifically in Gaza and Sudan, as well as parts of South Sudan, Haiti, and Mali, has reached alarming levels. "Global humanitarian needs are rising, fuelled by devastating conflicts, more frequent climate disasters, and extensive economic turmoil. In 2025, over 343 million people across 74 countries are acutely food insecure, a 10 per cent increase from last year 2024 and just shy of the record hit during the pandemic. The country contexts in which UN-WFP operates are becoming more complex, making reaching people in need more difficult and costly.

So likewise, beginning with bad weather in the spring of 1315 (a century referred to as the Little Ice Age). Universal crop failures occurred across Europe, which is in our current time is call a Global Food Sustainability Crisis. If you ask what “religion” ideology spirit is over that areas of judgment today, it is (Gaza/Hamas) Islamic Jihadi, Sudan, the same, Mali, is Islamic Jihadi, and Haiti is known for its Voodoo “spirit” “witchcraft” ideology. So as much as people like to “blame” poverty on only global climate changes, the real problem is rooted in how people are responding to the Crisis due to their Ideology.

Therefore, the Great Famine of 1315- 1317, brought extreme levels of starvation, mass death, crime, cannibalism, and infanticide. Then in 1348 – the Black Death began and a large part of European population disappeared, half of all people died. People ignored the Bible, unclean flea covered rats carried the Black Death. People died overnight, it was much worse than COVID. Pray for God to bring His Great “White Life” REVIVAL to our world!

#5.B God & Climate Change: Pt.2 Super Storm Helenna Who Controls The Global Weather In 2025/5785? Man or God?

Global Climate Change 2025-2050.

This is one of many Maps trying to Project the World as 4 degrees Celsius Warmer. Look at this map and you will see why President Trump wants to purchase Greenland and include Canada as a new United Americas! Half of Central America is in the extreme RED, as well as the Center of South America! RED means...No One Can Live in this HOT area! The Yellow area means “Dust Bowl SAND” no one can produce FOOD in this area, therefore, its Canada and Russia and a few small places that can sustain life? All of Central Asia is RED. The glaciers all melt in the High Mountain Ranges of the world, and the largest rivers in Asia create one great flood in China, the entire “Silk Road Initiative” becomes void of need.

This past year 2024, a massive storm Helenna came straight at Knoxville, TN! Our church had a prayer meeting scheduled, yet due to the coming storm, many stayed home! Yet some of us still decided to met and PRAY, as the storm drew near, we prayed “Oh Lord God, Abba Father, have mercy on us and our city of Knoxville, we know many wicked people haven't repented yet, but we ask that You spare us in Jesus' name.” The next day, the weather reports said, “Storm Helenna, drew close to Knoxville, then strangely split in half! It went around both sides of Knoxville, not touching our city!” Newport, TN, Asheville, and much of North Carolina was flooded away, houses floating down the rivers, only roofs showing, many people died, yet we knew God heard our prayers!”

Hollywood or Follywood? 2024

During the end of 2024, the News was full of the burning of California! Why? Too much Santa Ana wind? Ray Comfort showed a video clip of the Golden Globe Awards and the people openly MOCKING GOD. All the people, laughing at God, like He was a joke, not real. They were not “laughing” as they watched their million dollar homes turn to ashes. Perhaps they wished they had repented and called the city “Holy-wood”? To date, the Jan.7 fire has claimed 16,000 structures, 42,000 acres, 29 lives and is still burning at the end of the month.

#5. Benjamin Franklin:

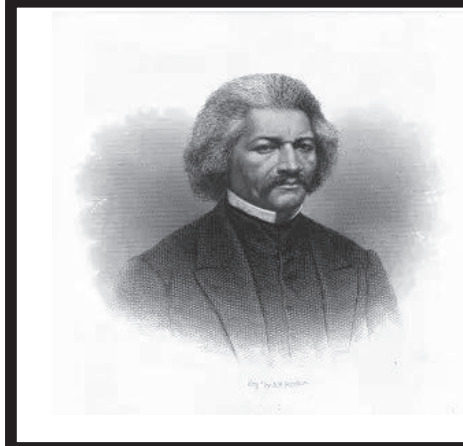

The Outspoken
Anti-Slavery
Abolitionist
of the American Revolution.

Benjamin Franklin did not publicly speak out against slavery until very late in his life. As a young man he owned slaves, and he carried advertisements for the sale of slaves in his newspaper, the Pennsylvania Gazette. At the same time, however, he published numerous Quaker pamphlets against slavery and condemned the practice of slavery in his private correspondence. It was after the ratification of the United States Constitution that he became an outspoken opponent of slavery.

In 1789 he wrote and published several essays supporting the abolition of slavery and his last public act was to send to Congress a petition on behalf of the Society asking for the abolition of slavery and an end to the slave trade. The petition, signed on February 3, 1790, asked the first Congress, then meeting in New York City, to "devise means for removing the Inconsistency from the Character of the American People," and to "promote mercy and justice toward this distressed Race."

The petition was introduced to the House on February 12 and to the Senate on February 15, 1790. It was immediately denounced by pro-slavery congressmen and sparked a heated debate in both the House and the Senate. The Senate took no action on the petition, and the House referred it to a select committee for further consideration. The committee reported on March 5, 1790 claiming that the Constitution restrains Congress from prohibiting the importation or emancipation of slaves until 1808 and then tabled the petition.

On April 17, 1790, just two months later, Franklin died in Philadelphia at the age of 84. History's greatest British abolitionist, William Wilberforce was born 1759, so was in his 30's when Franklin died, and the crowning work of abolishing slavery for the entire British Empire by 1833 carried on where Franklin and many others left off. Wilberforce converted to Christianity in 1784-85, and his spiritual advisor was John Newton, a former slave trader who is also famous for writing "Amazing Grace", one of the most famous Christian songs even today. The Bible calls slavery an evil practice, "kidnapping/menstealing" see I Timothy 1:10, what is called "Human Trafficking", and still endorsed in many Muslim countries according to the Quran, showing a great difference between religious belief.

6 Fredrick Douglass

"If there is no struggle,
There is No progress!"

Human Rights is the Story of Struggle for Godly Christian
Freedom.

Read Lev. 25:42

Frederick Douglass was a runaway slave who became one of the most influential abolitionists in the years leading up to the Civil War. Through his work with the Underground Railroad, it is estimated that at least 400 runaway slaves were helped by Douglass and his wife.

He spoke the famous quote, "If there is no struggle, there is no progress," among many other quotes of wisdom regarding slavery, freedom, progress and politics.

Douglass passed in 1895, but his life and work played a significant role in shaping the discourse on slavery, freedom and civil rights in the United States. He said many wise saying worth remembering! For example,

*"I prayed for freedom for twenty years, but received no answer until I prayed with my legs."
"Find out just what any people will quietly submit to and you have the exact measure of injustice and wrong which will be imposed on them."*

"I would unite with anybody to do right and with nobody to do wrong."

"It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men."

"Knowledge makes a man unfit to be a slave."

"The white man's happiness cannot be purchased by the black man's misery."

"The life of a nation is secure only while the nation is honest, truthful, and virtuous."

"The man who will get up will be helped up, and the man who will not get up will be allowed to stay down." "One and God make a majority."

"I prefer to be true to myself, even at the hazard of incurring the ridicule of others, rather than to be false, and to incur my own abhorrence." "To suppress free speech is a double wrong. It violates the rights of the hearer as well as those of the speaker." "Where justice is denied, where poverty is enforced, where ignorance prevails, and where any one class is made to feel that society is an organized conspiracy to oppress, rob and degrade them, neither persons nor property will be safe." "We succeed, not alone by the laborious exertions of our faculties, be they small or great, but by the regular, thoughtful and systematic exercise of them." "A man's rights rest in three boxes: the ballot box, the jury box, and the cartridge box." "I did not know I was a slave until I found out I couldn't do the things I wanted." "Intelligence is a great leveler here as elsewhere." "You are not judged by the height you have risen, but from the depth you have climbed." "You have seen how a man was made a slave; you shall see how a slave was made a man." Education means emancipation. It means light and liberty. It means the uplifting of the soul of man into the glorious light of truth, the light by which men can only be made free." "Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did and it never will." "Some know the value of education by having it. I know its value by not having it." "A battle lost or won is easily described, understood, and appreciated, but the moral growth of a great nation requires reflection, as well as observation, to appreciate it." "Our destiny is largely in our hands." "The soul that is within me no man can degrade." "Once you learn to read, you will be forever free." "A man's character always takes its hue, more or less, from form and color of things about him." "There is not a man beneath the canopy of Heaven who does not know that slavery is wrong for him." "Freedom is a road seldom traveled by the multitude." Look up the other great things he said and did.

Sun Yat Sen

孫逸仙

Christian Founding
Father of Modern
CHINA

(November 1866 - 12 March 1925) Chinese physician, revolutionary, statesman, and political philosopher.

Read I Thess. 1:3

Sun was initially unable to speak English, but quickly acquired it, received a prize for academic achievement from King Kalākaua, Hawaii, and graduated in 1882.

He then attended Oahu College (now known as Punahou School) for one semester. By 1883, Sun's interest in Christianity had become deeply worrisome for his brother—who, seeing his conversion as inevitable, sent Sun back to China.

Upon returning to China, a 17-year-old Sun met with his childhood friend Lu Haodong at the Beiji Temple (北極殿) in Cuiheng, where villagers engaged in traditional folk healing and worshipped an effigy of the North Star God. Feeling contemptuous of these idolatry practices, Sun and Lu incurred the wrath of their fellow villagers by breaking the wooden idol; as a result, Sun's parents felt compelled to dispatch him to Hong Kong. In November 1883, Sun began attending the Diocesan Home and Orphanage on Eastern Street (now the Diocesan Boys' School), and from 15 April 1884 he attended The Government Central School on Gough Street (now Queen's College), until graduating in 1886. In 1886, Sun studied medicine at the Guangzhou Boji Hospital under the Christian missionary John Glasgow Kerr. According to his book "Kidnapped in London", in 1887 Sun heard of the opening of the Hong Kong College of Medicine for Chinese (the forerunner of the University of Hong Kong). He immediately sought to attend, and went on to obtain a license to practice medicine from the institution in 1892; out of a class of twelve students, Sun was one of two who graduated.

In the early 1880s, Sun Mei had sent his brother to 'Iolani School, which was under the supervision of the Church of Hawaii and directed by an Anglican prelate, Alfred Willis, with the language of instruction being English. At the school, the young Sun first came in contact with Christianity. Sun was later baptized in Hong Kong on 4 May 1884 by Rev. Charles Robert Hager, an American missionary of the Congregational Church of the United States (American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions), to his brother's disdain. The minister would also develop a friendship with Sun. Sun attended Tsai Church (道濟會堂), founded by the London Missionary Society in 1888, while he studied medicine in Hong Kong College of Medicine for Chinese. Sun pictured a revolution as similar to the salvation mission of the Christian church. His conversion to Christianity was related to his revolutionary ideals and push for Christian modern advancement.

The Apostle
Thomas of Asia

Thomas the Apostle (Greek: Θωμάς, romanized: Thōmās; Classical Syriac: romanized: T'ōmā, meaning 'the Twin'), also known as Didymus (Greek: Δίδυμος, romanized: Didymos 'twin'), was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus according to the New Testament.

Read John 11:16

According to traditional accounts of the Saint Thomas Christians of India, the Apostle Thomas landed in Muziris (Cranganore) on the Kerala coast in AD 52 and was martyred in Mylapore, near Madras, Tamil Nadu in AD 72. He is believed by the Saint Thomas Christian tradition to have established seven churches (communities) in Kerala. These churches are at Kodungallur, Palayoor, Kottakkavu (Paravur), Kokkamangalam, Niranam, Nilackal (Chayal), Kollam, and Thiruvithamcode. Thomas baptized several families. Many families claim to have origins almost as far back as these, and the religious historian Robert Eric Frykenberg notes that: "Whatever dubious historicity may be attached to such local traditions, there can be little doubt as to their great antiquity or to their great appeal in the popular imagination."

It is said that Jesus asked Thomas to go to India, yet Thomas didn't desire to go to this strange place. Then an man from India came to his village looking for someone to help build a temple for the King. Thomas knew he must go...Thomas took a ship through Egypt to India, and began the temple work, yet saw many poor beggars needing food, some he fed, some who could work, did. The King hear Thomas was feeding the poor and called him to answer for wasting money on them. Later, the King had a dream, "God told him, "The poor are Your REAL temple".

"It was to a land of dark people he was sent, to clothe them by Baptism in white robes. His grateful dawn dispelled India's painful darkness. It was his mission to espouse India to the One-Begotten. The merchant is blessed for having so great a treasure. Edessa thus became the blessed city by possessing the greatest pearl India could yield. Thomas works miracles in India, and at Edessa Thomas is destined to baptize peoples perverse and steeped in darkness, and that in the land of India."—Ancient Hymns of Saint Ephrem, edited by Lamy (Ephr. Hymni et Sermones, IV).

... Into what land shall I fly from the just?

I stirred up Death the Apostles to slay, that by their death I might escape their blows.

But harder still am I now stricken: the Apostle I slew in India has overtaken me in Edessa; here and there he is all himself.

There went I, and there was he: here and there to my grief I find him.—quoted in Medlycott 1905, Ch II

Ephrem the Syrian, a doctor of Syriac Christianity, writes in the forty-second of his "Carmina Nisibina" that the Apostle was put to death in India, and that his remains were subsequently buried in Edessa, brought there by an unnamed merchant. Thomas was said to have sent the 70 into now modern Pakistan, then into the Karakoram areas of China and beyond. The Sarakoli Tajiks of China have ancient graveyards in Tashgorgon of Nestorian Christians, which they were, in their ancient history, they even look Middle Eastern, not Chinese. Pray that themartyr blood of Thomas will continue to birth victory for Asia by the Seeds he planted for Jesus.

"Be life long or short, its completeness depends on what it was lived for!" Amish Christian Proverb

#9
Japan for Jesus
 1614
 300,000 baptized
 Into Christ.
 God's
Underground Churches

Read Rev.2:17

“Underground Christianity is nothing New in History”

By 1579, there were about 130,000 converts. By 1603, according to Jesuit estimates of the time, the Japanese mission had become the largest overseas Christian community that was not under the rule of a European power, counting c. 200,000-300,000 converts, 190 churches, and 122 Jesuits in activity.

In 1614 Christianity was outlawed in Japan. Under the new law –missionaries were arrested and sentenced to death. However, some Christians refused to abandon their religion and went underground, continuing their faith in secret for centuries. These people became known as 'Kakure Kirishitan' or 'Hidden Christians'. The Twenty-six Martyrs of Japan (日本二十六聖人, Nihon Nijūroku Seijin) refers to a group of Christians who were executed by crucifixion after a forced march from Kyoto to Nagasaki. with the crucifixion taking place on 5 February 1597 at Nagasaki.

Persecution flared episodically and over a period of 15 years, between 1617 and 1632, 205 missionaries and native Christians are known to have been killed for their faith, 55 of them during the Great Genna Martyrdom, a further 50 during the Great Martyrdom of Edo (but only three were beatified as part of the 205 Martyrs of Japan). Christianity was proscribed and forced underground until the arrival of Western missionaries in the nineteenth century. What does Jesus think of “Underground Christians”? What does the Bible say? Acts 9:25..”And the disciples took him (Saul/Paul) by night, and lethem down by the wall in a basket.” Why? The Jews wanted to make him a martyr early! Shouldn't they “obey the authority” and turn him over to the law? A true authority in the Bible “punishes evil and rewards good”, while an evil false authority forbids the Word of God and puts itself outside and above any human sphere. No human authority is perfect, yet does it hinder the gospel or help it? Does it keep the caterpillar from becoming the butterfly on the cover of these booklets? Do they play devious games like “let 1000 flowers of freedom bloom” only to record the voices they then kill like the 80 million Christians the Communists under Mao starved to death in the Great Leap “Forward”? By God's grace, many escaped...now more live for Jesus.

 For Souls in Asia.

Read Galatians 3.

In 1529 Ignatius of Loyola, another Basque student, was assigned to room with Francis. A former soldier 15 years Francis's senior, he had undergone a profound religious conversion and was then gathering about himself a group of men who shared his ideals. Gradually, Ignatius won over the initially recalcitrant Francis, and Francis was among the band of seven who, in a chapel on Montmartre in Paris, on August 15, 1534, vowed lives of poverty and celibacy in imitation of Christ and solemnly promised to undertake a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and subsequently to devote themselves to the salvation of believers and unbelievers alike. Francis then performed the Spiritual Exercises, a series of meditations lasting about 30 days and devised by Ignatius in light of his own experience of conversion to guide the individual toward greater generosity in the service of God and humankind. They implanted in Francis the motivation that carried him for the rest of his life and prepared the way for his recurrent mystical experiences. Originally, he was to go to the Holy Land, yet God felt it was MORE IMPORTANT to send him to the MILLIONS of unreached people who had NEVER heard about Jesus, unless one of the disciples of Thomas had preached to them.

Francis disembarked in Goa, India, the center of Portuguese activity in the East, on May 6, 1542; his companion had remained behind to work in Lisbon, Spain. Much of the next three years he spent on the southeastern coast of India among the poor pearl fishers, the Paravas. About 20,000 of them had accepted baptism seven years before, chiefly to secure Portuguese support against their enemies; since then, however, they had been neglected. Using a small catechism he had translated into the native Tamil with the help of interpreters, Francis traveled tirelessly from village to village instructing and confirming them in their faith. His evident goodness and the force of his conviction overcame difficulties of verbal communication. Shortly afterward the Macuans on the southwestern coast indicated their desire for baptism, and after brief instructions he baptized 10,000 of them in the last months of 1544. He anticipated that the schools he planned and Portuguese pressure would keep them constant in the faith.

Do you know anyone who has baptized 30,000 people? In the fall of 1545 news of opportunities for Christianity attracted him to the Malay Archipelago. Following several months of evangelization among the mixed population of the Portuguese commercial center at Malacca (now Melaka, Malaysia), he moved on to found missions among the Malays and the headhunters in the Spice Islands (Moluccas). In 1548 he returned to India, where more Jesuits had since arrived to join him. In Goa the College of Holy Faith, founded several years previously, was turned over to the Jesuits, and Francis began to develop it into a center for the education of native priests and catechists for the diocese of Goa, which stretched from the Cape of Good Hope, at the southern tip of Africa, to China. He started a church outreach in Japan, then he died yet, God is not done with unreached millions of Asia, millions of Muslims turn daily to Jesus.

The Gospel
 To the Kingdom of Tibet. 1626

*How do you define
 A People as Reached?*

The first Christians to reach Tibet were the Nestorians. Various remain and inscription have been only in recent years. Jesuits and Capuchins arrived in the 17th and 18th centuries. Portuguese missionaries Jesuit father Antonio De Andrade and Brother Manuel Marques reach the Guge Kingdom in the year 1624. There were welcomed, the king and allow them to build a church. By the year 1627, there was about a hundred local converts in the Kingdom. Later on, it was introduced in Rudok. They were also welcome, the ruler of Tsang Kingdom. They establish a Jesuit post in Shigatse in 1626.

Later due to the turn of events in Tibet, Christianity didn't survive in Tibet. Yet in 1865, two French Catholic priest father Felix Biet and Father Auguste Desgodins made the journey to Tibet from Yunnan. The two establish a church in Yangjing in Markham County. Establishing a church in Tibet in the 19th Century was the hard task, there were often clashes with the local monasteries. In the 1940 Maurice Tournay, was killed in one such clash. Local lamas took over the church and remain in the Buddhist hand until 1951.

The first Tibetan Bible translation was initiated around 1857 by the Moravian Church among the Ladakhi people who speak one dialect of Tibetan and was one of the few gateways to Tibet at that time. The Moravian translation was handwritten on precious paper, translated and worked on sheet by sheet. Having a written and oral witness regarding Jesus' teachings is a big step towards "reaching a unreached people group". Today, over 1,000 languages still have no Bible and many no oral witness in their own language! "How shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard, and how can they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they are sent?" Romans 10:14,15.

A good sign that they are saved, and reached? They are sending and going to the next Unreached people groups whom God want to be saved! Are you obeying God?

Read 2 Cor. 6:5

On 5 March 2017 Pastor John and teacher Jing Ruxia were returning across the river from Myanmar (Burma), every year thousands of Burmese refugees stream into Yunnan, forced to live under trees with no food or clothes, so the Chinese church would come to the Burmese Christian families rescue. Yet, when the PSB police got new orders, and saw these pastors, Chinese security agents came. Before they were seized, the pastor threw his mobile phone into the water to protect the identities of more than fifty Chinese teachers he had recruited. They were held for almost a year before being charged in February 2018 with "organising illegal border crossings", a charge usually made against "human traffickers".

On 9 February 2018, Jing Ruxia was sentenced to one year in prison and then released. In March 2018, Pastor John was sentenced to seven years in prison and fined 20,000 yuan (approximately €2,600). He began serving his sentence in Menglian County Detention Centre, Pu'er City, Yunnan province. 4 March 2024 Pastor John Cao was released from prison in Kunming, Yunnan province after finishing his seven-year sentence. He later wrote his prison testimony.

6 June 2024 Police installed surveillance cameras at the apartment in Changsha belonging to Pastor John's mother, where he went to stay after his release. Two days previously he had been detained for twenty hours. He cannot leave the city or access essential services such as medical care because the authorities have not given him an ID card or passport.

15 October 2024 Pastor John was detained when visiting a church in Yunnan province to carry out baptisms. After he completed a statement police brought him back to Changsha. Pray for John Cao and his family, since he is still a "prisoner" in his home, unable to be with his family, as a punishment to scare others from serving Jesus and caring for the hundreds of thousands of Burmese Christians. John wrote a book you can purchase on line to help provide funds for him and his family, "Poems from Prison" and he hopes to write more! He has many health needs due to having no help in prison, and you can see it in his pictures how those years have aged him. Yet, John rejoices to have suffered and continues to suffer for Jesus and many people have come to faith in Jesus in China and overseas due to his testimony. If you had to be separated from those you love dearly, for Jesus' sake, Could you forgive? Could you be joyful? Could you rejoice? Could you thank God for all situations? John Cao does! His books are not expensive.

Living Lyrics is a collection of prison poems written by Pastor John Cao. Cao received a seven-year prison sentence in March 2018 for his Christian faith. Cao, a legal resident of North Carolina, made many trips to his native China for humanitarian work before his detention in March 2017. Those observing Cao's case believe his imprisonment is part of the ongoing campaign by the Chinese government to suppress the church. Inside Living Lyrics is a collection of Pastor Cao's prison poetry in both English and Chinese, alongside photos and information about his life and work. Each poem is a testimony to Pastor Cao's exemplary faith, heart for the Gospel, and his commitment to take up the cross of discipleship even in the face of immense persecution.

*"John Cao is a living testament to sacrificial love of brother above self and carrying his cross without shame so others may know the life found in it. He is of those mentioned in the Bible not worthy of this world as they are willing to lose it all for heaven's sake. May his words from a Chinese prison inspire us to be better, to be bolder, and to focus our time on Earth, like him, making an eternal difference." Rep. Vicky Hartzler (R-MO). The majority of Iraq's remaining Christians reside in Erbil, estimates suggesting there are between 250,000 to 300,000 Christians in the Region, primarily Assyrians, Chaldeans, and Syrians, who are descendants of ancient Assyria.

The Christian population in Iraq was estimated to be around 1.5 million before the 2003 US-led invasion. However, due to sectarian violence and the rise of ISIS, many Christians fled their homes, with a significant number seeking refuge in the Kurdistan Region.

Read 2 Cor.11:23-25

A commentary on the status of Christians in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq must begin with a recognition that much of the historical Christian lands in northern Iraq continue to exist in a disputed status, the sovereignty of which remains undetermined between the central Iraqi Government in Baghdad and the Kurdistan Regional Government (KRG) in Erbil. Kurdish peoples are a linguistic group void of a legal nation other than to be like refugees in many different countries like the USA (Nashville, TN), see Little Kurdistan, also Iran, Turkey, and Iraq and Syria.

In particular, the Christian towns and lands of the Nineveh Plain remain highly problematic. The ongoing lack of resolution on this matter colors all discussion for the Christians in northern Iraq and the Kurdistan Region, and the many areas of concern stemming from it cannot be minimized. Overall, the issue of security, especially in the Nineveh Plain, remains a fundamental concern for Christians.

Kurdish Christianity in Iraq 2025

Nevertheless, certain conclusions can be drawn from the recent experience of the Christians living in the undisputed areas of the Kurdistan Region, primarily in the greater Erbil region. This population at present includes not only the indigenous (pre-2014) residents, but also the internally displaced persons (IDP) Christians of Nineveh, who fled to the safety of the Kurdistan Region after the ISIS attacks of 2014. Altogether, this represents well more than 150,000 Christians, making it the single largest center of Christianity remaining in greater Iraq.

Important to note here is the willingness of the KRG leadership to consistently engage in acts of public solidarity with the Christian population. These examples of tolerance and respect are of great significance. Moreover, especially in the aftermath of the ISIS war, continued vigilance and leadership must be shown at all levels of government to ensure that hateful ideologies are not allowed any space to take root. The Christians in the Kurdistan Region will continue to look closely for unwavering support in this area. From faith comes service.

The Future of Christians in the Kurdistan Region 2025

Since 2014, the number of Christian IDP families in Erbil has increased by more than 10,000 additional families. As we look to the coming year, these numbers remain fluid, with many seeking to return to their former homes in the Nineveh Plain. Yet a significant number of these families may choose to stay in the greater Erbil region for the foreseeable future. The Kurds have been in these regions for thousands of years, yet with Assad's overthrow, many Arabs in Rojava are demanding HTS-affiliated governance and reintegration of their locality into a unified Syria, heightening the Kurds' sense of insecurity in these areas. "The day Bashar al-Assad fell, I wasn't in the mood to celebrate. I was already expecting tensions between Kurds and Arabs to rise. The Arabs don't like us and want to get rid of us." Will America, Europe and the world come to the aid of these persecuted Christians? We must PRAY and SEEK help for them so they can be at peace in the Islamic pressure cooker!

Few scholars have led more Muslims to follow the truth of Jesus, and the Bible, than Pfander. His materials, once studied by the Islamic scholars of many nations, continue to lead these men to the decision to turn from Islam at the risk of their lives, to follow the truth of Jesus in the Bible as the only way of salvation for all time; past, present and future.

Safdar Ali, a Muslim scholar struggled in debate and study for three years, and was finally baptized into Christ on Christmas Day 1864. Abdul Masih (1776-1827) an Indian from a devout Muslim family in Delhi, was a great and wealthy Muslim scholar who converted to follow Jesus also became a very powerful Christian evangelist helping many to follow Jesus as Lord. During one of his many trips, 1813-1814, 50 (fifty) Muslims were converted and baptized together. All of very high stature. Memorize 1 Cor. 8:6.

Today, 2025, Pakistan is trying to maintain a stable and hopefully growing existence with many issues around its borders. Asif Ali Zardari is the current President, born on 26 July 1955 to a Baloch family from Sindh province. After receiving his early education at Karachi Grammar School, he went to Cadet College Petaro. Later, he pursued his education in London. He was married to Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto in 1987 who, a year later, became the Muslim World's first woman Prime Minister (PM) in 1988 and went on to serve as PM for two terms, first from 1988 to 1990 and again from 1993 to 1996. Ms Bhutto was assassinated in an attack in Rawalpindi on 27 December 2007. The Christians of Pakistan 2025 have many challenges, yet Imams are bravely studying the Bible, also Muhammad's (pbuh) last dying words which reveal one of the Greatest revelations since the Birth of Islam, "who is the Most High Friend!" Not only does Abdul Masih's example touch millions today via the Internet legacy, but thousands of others like Imad ud-din Lahiz (1830-1900) who was a Islamic scholar, preacher, writer, and Quranic translator, converted to Christianity. Millions of Muslims are turning to Jesus every year!

He had translated the Quran into Urdu, and was from a fourth generation of Islamic scholar family. Yet, while assisting Rahmatullah Kairanawi alongside Muhammad Wazir Khan in a debate with Karl Pfander in Agra, 1854, and studied Pfander's writings and stated,

"We can now, I think, say that the controversy has virtually been complete...the Christians have obtained a complete victory, while our opponents have been signally defeated." Then his aged father, and brother, his wife and five sons and four daughters all gave their lives to Jesus as their Saviour. He then wrote a book, Tahqiq ul-Iman explaining the reasons for his change.

Today more than 10.2 million documented Muslims have converted to Christianity since a 2015, yet due to persecution these numbers are much higher. Abo of Tiflis, Abraham of Bulgaria, St Adolphus, Jabalah ibn al-Aiham of Syria, Leo Africanus, Hodja Amiris, and hundreds more listed under "Converts to Christianity from Islam." "Do not show the face of Islam to others; instead show your face as the follower of true Islam representing character, knowledge, tolerance and piety."—Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

Commentary of the Torah and Gospel

In 1862 while stationed at Ghazipur, Sir Syed started working on a commentary on the Bible and its teaching, with the aim to explain them in terms of Islam. It was published in Urdu and English in three parts from 1862 to 1865 under the title Tabin al-al-kalam Fi tafsir altawrat Wa 'I-injil'ala millat al Islam (Elucidation of the World in Commentary of the Torah and Gospel According to the Religion of Islam). While the first part deals with the Islamic approach towards biblical writings, the second and third part contains commentary on the Book of Genesis and the Gospel of Matthew respectively.

Instead of violence, these men for the most part, all cared about education, study, and truth. They were not afraid to debate in peace and respect for each other, without compulsion, without threat of violence to them or other who even converted. Sir Syed was an influence on several political leaders, thinkers and writers such as Muhammad Iqbal, Abul Kalam Azad, Sayyid Mumtaz Ali, Altaf Hussain Hali, Shibli Nomani, Nawab Mohsin-ul-Mulk, Chiragh Ali, Nazir Ahmad Dehlvi, and first President of Pakistan, Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Muhammad (pbuh) taught to "seek Knowledge even unto China." and Jesus (pbuh) taught "Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth will make you free." (John 8:32). The opposite of Knowledge is Ignorance, and the opposite of Truth is Lies and Falsehood. If people live in ignorance and falsehood, they are not free to honor God, rather they are slaves of lies and ignorance. One of the saddest things of life is to find close minded people who have never dared read a Bible or a Quran, who never dared to THINK. God has given us a brain and wants us to glorify Him by making good use of it in these short days on earth! The culture we are born in often pressures us not to THINK, but THINK we MUST! Deeply, carefully, lovingly, THINK!

# 16. Esther John. Ex-Muslim, Convert to Jesus wins the Hearts of all Pakistan for Jesus. Martyred 1960.

Esther John (Urdu: استر جون) (born Qamar Zia (Urdu: قمر ضياء) on 14 December 1929; died 2 February 1960) was a Pakistani Christian nurse who was murdered in 1960. In 1998, she was honored with a statue above the great west door of Westminster Abbey, among nine other Christian martyrs of the twentieth century.

Qamar Zia was born into an Islamic family on 14 December 1929, in British India. She attended a Christian school from the age of seventeen, and was so inspired by the Book of Isaiah (9:6-11) that she decided to convert to Christianity. Zia's family migrated to the newly-born Pakistan in 1947. She continued to study the Bible in secret, and seven years later ran away from home, fearing that her family would force her into a marriage. She took a job in an orphanage in Laugesen, Karachi, and changed her name to Esther John. In June 1955, she moved to Sahiwal, where she lived and worked in a mission hospital. From 1956 to 1959, she trained to be a teacher at the United Bible Training Centre in Gujranwala, then spent the remainder of her life evangelizing in the villages around Chichawatni and was martyred among those she loved unto death. She is the "Mother Theresa of Pakistan", every Pakistani sees her as the Hero of her Country, bold enough to become a Christian even! Memorize Rev. 14:13.

Rahbar was raised as Muslim but converted to Christianity as a professor at Ankara University. He records in his memoir that he was baptised as a Christian by a Protestant United States Air Force Chaplain, Meredith Smith, in Ankara, on 6 July 1959. Rahbar noted that his conversion was not a result of the 1958 Colloquium, but was more closely related to the memories of Partition of India and the then environment in Turkey. He stated that the "categorical mercy" of the New Testament and the "Christian world seemed to...offer a spiritual home" from his growing pessimism. A couple of months later, Rahbar wrote A letter to Christian and Muslim Friends as a confession of faith.

This confession, however, was not fully accepted by some Muslim intellectuals. Khaled Ahmed, a Pakistani political and cultural analyst, stated that Rahbar's supposed conversion to Christianity was nothing more than a "myth created in Lahore" Yet Rahbar never denied a Christian faith and love for others.

In the published version of his dissertation, God of Justice: A Study in the Ethical Doctrine of the Qur'an published by E. J. Brill in 1960, Rahbar advanced the position that God's mercy is always subordinate to justice, so mercy is only available to believers. Rahbar was an intelligent scholar and knew the risk of becoming a Christian as a Muslim, and trusted in Jesus, the Mercy of God. Will you trust and risk for belief in Jesus?

Wurmbrand travelled to Norway, England, and then the United States. In May 1966, he testified in Washington, D.C., before the U.S. Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee. That testimony, in which he took off his shirt in front of TV cameras to show the scars of his torture, brought him to public attention. He became known as "The Voice of the Underground Church", doing much to publicise the persecution of Christians in Communist countries. He compiled circumstantial evidence that Karl Marx was a Satanist. In April 1967, the Wurmbrands formed Jesus to the Communist world, later renamed Voice of the Martyrs, an interdenominational organisation working initially with and for persecuted Christians in Communist countries, but later expanding its activities to help persecuted believers in other places, especially in the Muslim world.

Imran Khan was the Prime Minister from 2018-2022. It ranked 130 out of 142 countries in the rule of law index, overall rating freedom is 34/100. It seems like one of the most evil crimes is the continuation of the "ID Policy" which states what "religion" a person is, a open class caste biased system. Using this method keeps the country divided and not united, esp. religiously. People are discriminated in religious caste systems to control them. Christians since the founding of Pakistan went from 26% to less than 2% of the entire population due to persecution, a slow, methodical, cultural genocide. The same happens to Hindu, Ahmadiyya, Sikh, Bahai, and others.

In August 16, 2024, Muslim mobs attacked and burned 80 Christian homes & business looted and 27 churches in Jaranwala, after two Christians were falsely accused of blasphemy. One Christian was killed in such a sick, inhumane, brutal way by the mob seen on film, yet all the murderers were released on bail by the court, and no justice has been brought forth except token effort to fix the homes and churches, with no deeper attempt to fix the very root issues that are ignored since the Islamic Sharia allows such evil to continue.

Will the government of Pakistan pay for all the future, remaining Christian children to have free, full scholarships to go overseas, so they are safe? Then these children can decide to stay out or attempt to return to help make Pakistan a better place? Like God said to Pharaoh via Moses, "Let My people, GO." Likewise, Christian families should be given the right to immigrate to Christian free countries if needed, otherwise they remain generational slaves, serving in mandatory sewer cleaners, brick kiln makers and every other most terrible job no one else wants for so little pay. Pray for Pakistan and its leaders so their land will be healed.

How this famous
American Actor
Gave His Life to Jesus
before He died
Of Cancer!

(1907-1979)

John Wayne was the American Western Actor everyone loved, because he was a role model of how a real man should act and carry himself! Before John Wayne died in 1979, most knew he as an actor yet few knew him as a person, and even fewer know this true story. John was a big fan of Robert Schuller. Robert had a teenage daughter, Cindy who was in a sad motorcycle accident and had to have her leg amputated. John had heard Dr. Schuller say on one of his programs that his daughter had been in this accident and had this amputation.

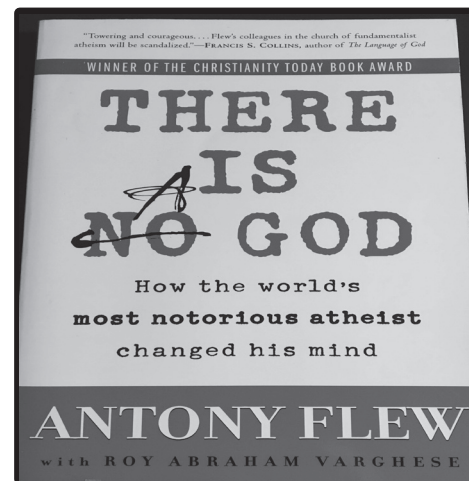

So John Wayne wrote a note to her saying, "Dear Cindy, sorry to hear about your accident. Hope you will be alright. Signed, John Wayne." This note was delivered to her so she decided she wanted to reply.

She wrote: "Dear Mr. Wayne, I got your note. Thank you for writing to me. I like you very much. I am going to be alright, because Jesus is going to help me. Mr. Wayne, do you know Jesus? I sure hope you know Jesus, that you give your heart to Jesus right now. See you in heaven. And she signed her name. She had just put the letter in an envelope, sealed it, and written across the front, "John Wayne" when a visitor came in the room to see her. He said, "What are you doing?" She said, "I just finished writing a letter to John Wayne, but I don't know how to get it to him." He said, "That's funny! I am going to have dinner with him at the Newport Cub tonight, down at Newport Beach. Give it to me and I will give it to him." So she gave him the letter and he put it in his coat pocket. There were 12 people sitting at the table for dinner that night. They were laughing, and cutting up, and the guy reached in his pocket and remembered the note. John Wayne was seated at the end of the table, and the guy took the letter out and said, "Hey Duke, I was in Schuller's daughter's room today, and she wrote you a letter, and wanted me to give it to you so here it is." They passed it down to John Wayne and he opened it. They kept laughing and cutting up, and someone happened to look down at John and he was crying. One of them said, "Hey Duke, what is the matter," He said (and can't you just hear his voice saying this), "I want to read this letter, and he read it to everyone.

Then, he began to weep more....He folded it, put it in his pocket. He pointed to the man who delivered it and said, "You go tell that little girl, that right now, in this restaurant, right here. John Wayne gives his heart to Jesus Christ, and I will see her in heaven." Then three weeks later, John Wayne died.

Do you have the assurance of knowing Jesus? His comfort in ever struggle of life? His assurance that when you die, you will be in heaven? If you are not sure, you need to accept Jesus' invitation now by faith now, because you never know when you might die! Cindy could have died in the motorbike accident, right? Perhaps, John Wayne didn't know he had stomach cancer and would e dead in three short weeks, right? So don't delay, give you heart now. God bless you if you do...and write it here and date it so you remember, and tell someone.

IT SHOCKED the Atheist world when Dr. Flew openly and boldly became a Christian, and his book outlines what he calls the "death of the Atheist argument".

Is there a holiday special to them coming up that week? Find out! Research it! Then ask them if they have allittle time to tell you something about their home overseas! What do they like and what don't they miss at all! Everyplace and culture is different. Someplaces chose who you are to marry, others allow you to choose! What games did they play in their country, and when was the last time they went back for a visit? What do they miss and what did they wish could be better about their homeland if possible? Then write all these things down so you will not forget them, thank them for sharing with you. Before you leave the conversation, ask if they had anything you could pray to God about for them or their family or country? I met a man at the gas station who said he had been in America 18 years, and that I was the first person to ever talk to them about God, or to give them a Bible or invite them to church! So sad...Learn how to say "Hello & Goodbye" in as many languages as possible..ask them how to say these words correctly, and even record it so you can remember it correctly. It takes many times o say a new language correct, so repeat it to every person you meet from that country. Corona-Virus

Feb 7th. 2020
Martyr for Jesus
Memorize Acts 26.18.

Li Wenliang (Chinese: 李文亮; pinyin: Lǐ Wénliàng; 12 October 1986 – 7 February 2020) was a Chinese ophthalmologist at Wuhan Central Hospital who warned about a new coronavirus strain on 30 December 2019 on WeChat to fellow colleagues, becoming a whistle-blower when his warnings were later shared publicly.

On 3 January 2020, Wuhan police summoned and admonished him for "making false comments on the Internet".

Li returned to work, later contracting the virus from an infected patient and dying from the disease on 7 February 2020.

He and his family are Christians, and all the world is moved by his sacrificial choice to spread awareness about the virus despite the risks he faced, especially to his reputation and to his on health.

He continued to care for patients until he was infected himself. What a legacy to leave behind of what it means to be like Jesus to those hurting in this time of world crisis.

He chose to be an example of Immanuel "God with us" to the people of Wuhan. Well done, good and faithful servant.

and COVID Poem

“ With Tear Like Rain”

Pray for His Wife, around the World.

The death of Li provoked considerable grief and anger on the social media which became extended to a demand for freedom of speech. The hashtag #wewantfreedomofspeech gained over 2 million views and over 5,500 posts within 5 hours before it was removed by the censors, as were other related hashtags and posts.

“I don't want to be a hero, I still have my parents, and my children, and my pregnant wife who's about to give birth, and many of my patients in the ward,

Though my integrity cannot be exchanged for the goodness of others, Despite my loss and confusion, I should proceed anyway, Who let me choose this country and this family? How many grievances do I have? When this battle is over, I will look up to the Sky with tears like Rain. I don't want to be a hero, but as a doctor, I cannot just see

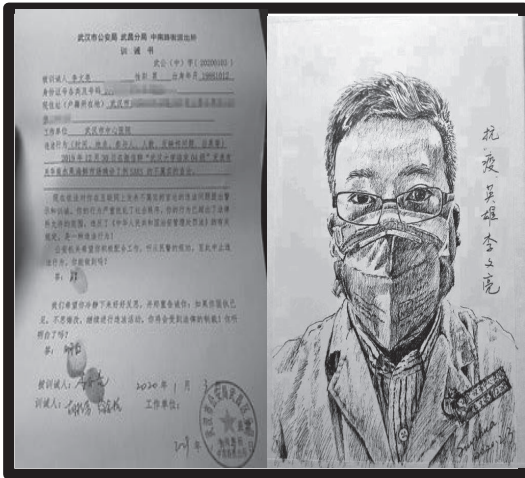

This unknown virus hurting my peers, and so many innocent people, though they are dying, they are always looking at me in their eyes with their Hope of life. Who would have ever realized that I was going to die? (Memorize Psalms 40:4)

Julian of Norwich: (1342-1416) a Christian mystic and woman theologian: She was given 16 Revelations of God's Love to her Time during the Black Death of 1348-1350, she was known as the Divine Optimist: She had the gift of prophecy and encouragement.

“He said not, “Thou shalt not be tempest, thou shalt not be travailed, thou shalt not be dis-eased.” but He said, “Thou shalt not be overcome.” in her first English book published of a woman writer in English history, Revelations of Divine Love. “If there is anywhere on earth a lover of God who is always kept safe, I know nothing of it, for it was not shown to me. But this was shown: that in falling and RISING AGAIN we are always kept in the same precious love.” “God loved us before he made us; and his love never diminished and never shall.” “Truth sees God, and wisdom contemplates God, and from these two comes a third, a holy and wonderful DELIGHT in God, who is Love.”

Julian was on her deathbed, when Jesus came to her in many visions, and she recovered and began writing. The Black Death killed half the population of her city, the second largest in England next to London. Isaiah 49:15 was a key life verse for her. Has God given you one? The song “All Shall Be Well” or the Bells of Norwich has put some of her visions words to song. Jasper Becker has recently written a book regarding COVID, and China and the implications in our global world in 2025 that should be seriously studied, and in our new Bio-Tech world are we ready to face the potential next great plagues? May God grant us loving hearts and courage like Julian and Dr. Li Wen Liang.

Was COVID a Deliberate BIO Purge?

“ With Tear Like Rain”

Pray for all COVID

“My soul is in Heaven. Looking at the white bed,
On which lies my own body , with the same familiar face,
Where are my parents? And my dear wife, the lady I once had a hard time chasing?

There is a light in the sky! At the end of the light is the Heaven that people often talk about, but I would rather
Not go there, I'd rather go back to my hometown in Wuhan.
I have my new house there. For which I still have to pay off
The loan every month. How can I give up? How can I give Up? For my parents without their son, How sad must it be?
For my sweetheart without her husband, how can she face
The vicissitudes in her future?

I am already gone. I see them taking my body, putting it
Into a bag, with which lies many compatriots, gone like me.
Being pushed into the fire in the hearth at dawn, “Goodbye, my dear ones, Farewell Wuhan, my hometown, Hopefully after the disaster You'll remember someone once, tried to tell you the truth, as soon as possible, Hopefully, after the disaster, you'll learn what it means to be righteous, No more good people should suffer from endless fear, and helpless sadness. *I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the Crown of Righteousness*”. 2 Timothy 4.7 Holy Bible..

DNA splicing and Gene Technologies are advancing at incredible rates and affects so many areas, like the food we eat, our health, no wonder Julian spent much of her life as a “anchorist” i.e. a woman in seclusion, isolated from the people and germs in her world in order to survive the Black Death plagues. Will some in our generation need to do the same in the face of the next rounds of plagues released on humanity, this Bio-genecidal experimentation in which we are the involuntary test subjects? Can you grow your own food? Are your seeds modified? Pure? Is your water free and clean? Your spirit? Is it free and clean as well? Is it polluted with toxic waste? Will you allow God to clean your spirit? What will happen if we ignore all these toxic thing inside and out?

#24 Where is Pastor.
Raymond Koh?
2025

The Malaysian Government
admitted the “Enforced Disappearance:” yet has
NOT released nor returned Pastor Koh to his family?

Pray this evil Government
Repents, its Judges also REPENT and do right.

Read Proverbs 1:7

Malaysia’s human rights commission, Suhakam, has ruled that Pastor Raymond Koh and a Muslim social activist, Amri Che Mat, were the victims of state sponsored “enforced disappearances”. After a years-long inquiry, Suhakam reported on Wednesday (3 April) that the two were taken by a Special Branch – the police’s intelligence unit. Church leaders in Malaysia are now calling on the government to “Immediately take steps to clarify and separate the jurisdictions of the religious authorities and the Royal Malaysia Police.” It seems they are hiding the truth, hiding the perpetrators, hiding the victims,
So Pray Trump will stop all aide and help to this evil government until they fully repent.
Pray God reveal all the truth and pray that if these good men are alive, that they are released. In a statement in response to Suhakam’s report, the Council of Churches of Malaysia, which includes three Anglican dioceses of the Church of the Province of South East Asia, and the Mar Thoma Syrian Church in Malaysia, also called for the immediate launch of “an independent and impartial investigation into the Raymond Koh and Amri Che Mat cases, free of conflict of interest.” This evil Islamic State needs to free these men, whom they have lied about holding with no more “smoke & mirror” deceptions.

They also called for the families to the two men to be provided with remedies, “especially their right to know the truth about the fate and whereabouts of these two men, and full compensation for all lose extending into the future.” Economic sanctions need to be put into place, and tourism bans until this matter is fully resolved.
ID Cards serve as a way to persecute the Malaysian people and to grant the Malay people un-fair advantages, creating a caste system that grants great favor to the muslims and unequal rights to everyone else, this is bondage and social slavery, so those who can leave have fled to other safer, better countries. Pray God creates leaders to rise and improve this country for a bright and good future. Everyone knows that a very large part of Malaysia wants these biased ID cards cancelled. Pray that this will happen soon, and that a healthy government free of corruption will arise.

Raymond Koh, who had been accused of proselytising Muslims, disappeared on 13 February 2017 in Selangor. Mr Amri, who practices Shia Islam, which is banned in Sunnimajority Malaysia, also disappeared on 24 November 2016 in Perlis. The report said that the two men’s religious activities was the reason for their disappearance.
Large numbers of the Malaysian population have become Christians without the help of Pastor Koh, yet he is now used as their “scapegoat”.

#25. The Middle East,
China and Uyghur,
Contradictions. 2025

KSA-Kingdom-Saudi-Arabia,
Israel post-Oct.7,Syria,Kurds,
Palestinians, Jordan, & Egypt.

Solutions?
Yeshua HamaShiach!
"Jesus the Messiah"
Read Acts 13:39.

Today I was researching to see the status of 48 Uyghurs in a Thai prison awaiting return to China's XinJiang Province, Feb.2025..Will they die?

China is using Computer Surveillance and Algorithms to "randomly profile and round up Uyghurs- 1500 men per week, women and children also" to add them to their "re-education prisons" in which 3.6 million are now (2025) in Cultural "brain-washing" locked, jails. Many of these are good kind Uyghurs, Christians, Kazakhs, Central Asia peoples.

The Islamic Cultures and the China Cultures have clashed!

Yet,the Islamic world is very quiet, no protests, and have ignored this, why? Money! The China Silk-Belt Rd. has poured billions of investment into all the ASEAN Islamic world so no one wishes to "rock the money boat".

In Kunming China 2013, a group of discontent Uyghurs killed innocent mothers, fathers, children with swords in a crowded train station shocking the nation, so the leaders decided they cannot ignore this clash because it is much bigger than one terrible incident. There method is called "Controlled, Enforced Assimilation" of the Islamic by the Chinese Culture. I has been a back and forth battle for centuries. NO Islamic Country Cares, yet Jesus cares about the Uhygur. Its ONLY the Christian countries who speak up for Truth and Justice, because Jesus cares for all the Nations.

This again Tests the Conscience of the World Community, why? The Islam world? Hypocrites, yet Jesus cares!

Every "majority" culture is guilty of trying to change the "other" culture, whether Native American, African, Tibetan, Rohynga, or Hindu. All cultures have good and bad "habits", but what is the best way to Solve this, Outer Control or Inner "Transformation"? Jesus' love & justice is the Solution.

#26 Rudolf Mak: Cultural Healing (Geno-Cura)?

The Cross of Jesus is the Center,
and Only True, Lasting, Healthy Way Change can ONLY Come.

"Real Change first is an Inside Desire,
In response to the Holy Spirit, and any Change forced from the Outside Methods of Control are Weak & Temporary."

Rudolf Mak, my dear HK Fuller graduate brother with OMF passed on to glory last year, 2024. We worked on many Asian projects together to bring Jesus glory!

Tony Campolo, Sandra Crouch, James Lawson Jr, K.P.Yohannan, of Gospel for Asia, went peacefully, yet many unknown Christians died violent, forgotten deaths. Yet, we will not forget them. Like Juan Lopez, shot and killed in Honduras, Christian deCharge of Algeria, a martyred Monk of Christ, Richard Malinga, of Uganda killed by a targeted assassin, Y Oum Bya, Vietnam Christian tortured to death, US David & Natalie Lyoyd in Haiti with Jude Montis ambushed in PortaPrince, Ps. Mardsseh Ibrahim in Nigeria, killed by assassins and the list in God's Hand is very, very long of His faithul whom the BIG NEWS PAPERS ignore while billions are paid by the murders Ideology to give empathy to those who rejoiced in the death of the innocent.

The New York Holocaust survivor, and UN Jewish lawyer, Mr. Lempkin created the term "Genocide" i.e. "race mass murder", because all the other terms seemed too weak to describe such inhumane terror. So likewise, we have felt the need to create a new word, "Geno-cura" because no term existed to express the "race mass healing" so badly needed in our world today, a word to describe the "revival healing" that will sweep the earth.

Isa.53:5 "the chastisement of our peace was upon him (Jesus) and with his stripes we are healed."

Mark 5:34 "Jesus said to her, "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace, and be whole of thy PLAGUE."

All around the global community "Houses of Prayer for all Nations" have begun to rise more and more, see Blog info www.thegatheringfamily.com Many more are needed as holy places to come seek the Lord in prayer and fasting together daily. James 5:15,16. Memorize 1 Peter 2:24.

Are you praying for the Nations? Pray for S. Korea (Jan.2025) as the Communists have infiltrated their Government to seek and take it over and put them in bondage! Deliver your Church Lord!

#28. Henry Martyn & The Iranian Revival For Jesus

Translated the Bible Into Urdu and Persian. so that the Muslim World May come to know Jesus

Today 2020, Iran has the Greatest Revival for Muslims coming to Christ Than any other Country.

Henry Martyn arrived from Briton to India in April 1806, where he preached and occupied himself in the study of linguistics. He translated the whole of the New Testament into Urdu, the language of India which is now home to over one billion people. He also translated the "Book of Common Prayer." Pakistan speaks Urdu and has Urdu Bibles now.

Then Martyn translated the Bible into Persian, the language of Iran, a Shia Muslim dominated land and the Judaeo-Persic or Jewish Iranian dialect brought over during the days of Esther in the Old Testament.. He also translated the Psalms into Persian. From India, he set out for Bushire, Shiraz, Isfahan, and Tabriz, and gave the King or Shah of Iran, his first Bible in their language as a gift.

Martyn was seized with a serious fever, and, though the plague was raging at Tokat, he was forced to stop there, unable to continue. On 16 October 1812 he died. He was remembered for his courage, selflessness and his religious devotion. In his zeal as a young martyr he is quoted as saying,

"Let me burn for God!"

Medi Debaj, a former Muslim turned pastor and many other thousands now walk in Eternal Life as martyrs because of the Love of Henry Martyn to go translate the Word of God for Jesus.

The Armeanian King Tiridates in AD 301 threw Gregory in prison for many years, They he got very sick, yet many heard of how Gregory prayed in his prison for the sick names let down in his food basket and were healed so he called for Gregory and he prayed and the King was healed by Jesus. Then the King ordered that ALL HIS Nation study the Bible and give their lives to Jesus, and the whole Nation of Armenia got BAPTIZED and filled with the Holy Spirit! Read Psalms 2:8,9. What Nations are YOURS?

Free Burma Rangers in Syria & Burma 2025 CRISIS STOP the GLOBAL Christian GENOCIDE NOW

Displacement and attacks have increased greatly since the fall of the dictator, Bashar al-Assad. In the areas he had controlled, on the western side of the country from Idlib down to Aleppo and Damascus, is the al-Qaeda-originated group, Hayat Tahir Al-Sham (HTS), who, after ousting Assad, have falsely promised a “less radical program than al-Qaeda” promoted.

However, religious minorities are already being threatened and it remains to be seen what this group will do? They already know these liars.

In the middle of the country is the Syrian National Army(SNA), who was previously called the Free Syrian Army (FSA), and is supported directly by Turkey. These groups consist of radical Islamic organizations such as ISIS; many of these soldiers even wear the ISIS patch. They’ve already displaced over 300,000 people and killed hundreds.

The goal of the SNA is not only getting rid of the Assad regime but getting rid of the Kurds, Christians, and any other minorities. Turkey is supporting and using the SNA, especially to attack the Kurds.

These troops are on a rampage every day, not only killing anyone they think is against their ideals, but also robbing and looting. With Turkish air, artillery, and armor support, they are now attacking the bridge across the Euphrates River that leads to Kobani, as well as the Tishreen Dam.

The city of Manbij, which was controlled by the pro-democracy Kurd-led Syrian Democratic Forces (SDF) until earlier in December, was taken by the SNA, who have slaughtered people in the streets.

Free Burma Rangers have already lost one friend there, a man named Eskandar, who was a refugee from Idlib and became one of our coordinators. He was trying to help provide food for 500 people and was shot dead by SNA troops.

Even though our newly appointed and beloved, President Trump in the USA has cut ALL foreign funding help to countries outside of the USA, in order to establish a stronger, strategic USA base and with the hopes of “not funding all our enemies with ropes to hang us!”, the Christians, not only in Syria, Burma, Pakistan, Israel and throughout the Middle East and world, are very persecuted by the Pan Islamic Global Brotherhood in a deliberate Genocide planned and funded by Communist, China, Russia, Iran, Malaysia, Turkey, and quite a few sitting on the fence, and these Christians need America to properly make best use of their funds to help them! Why? The world has lost trust in America due to the unwise and weak approach of America, we have neglected the Christians as the enemy majority gobbled up our funds laughing. The Communists laugh also as they make the Muslims “atheists” like there are due to their actions of selfishness and no love even for their own peoples. Write to Acts of America, Bridgette Gabriel, Tim Dieppe, Christian Concern, VOM, Open DoorsInt. and ACLJ, YES to ALL, add this to their number ONE Concern, the funding needed to save the world from Global Christian Genocide, our OWN PEOPLE AT VERY SERIOUS RISK.
